

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am thankful to Prof. RANJANA PATNAIK, School of Bio-Medical Engineering, Institute of Technology, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, INDIA who is supposed to be my supervisor and always being an inspiration to me for her unconditional support in different phases of my scientific career.

I am grateful to Prof. PASCAL DARBON, Electrophysiology School Organizer, University of Strasbourg, France for selecting me as a School participant and also providing me with all necessary support to attend the school. It was really a marvelous opportunity for me to learn advanced electrophysiological techniques in the School.

Last but not the least, I express my deep gratitude to Prof. MIKE COUSIN, for his support and I honestly confess that without his cooperation it never being possible for me to accomplish such visit to attend this wonderful workshop.

My heartily thanks to all CAEN committee members of ISN.....
